The Deputy Commissioner, Lahore and D.G PDMA have appeared in response to the Court notice. The Deputy Commissioner, Lahore has filed a report regarding the action taken in respect of stubble burning in and around Lahore. According to him, the reports published in the newspapers were fake and it was found that those cases were not those of stubble burning and the Deputy Commissioner, Lahore himself visited the site to double check and verified the fact. Be that as it may, the Deputy Commissioner undertakes that all possible steps shall be taken for implementation of the orders of this Court. Likewise, D.G PDMA also filed a report underlying the long term steps being taken by PDMA for the control of smog and the pollution in Lahore. It is directed that D.G PDMA shall file a report
